

FAQ's-Frequently Asked Questions

Are you currently degree seeking in an Associate of Science program?

Look here for answers to frequently asked questions.

What can I do with this degree when I'm finished?

Visit <http://www.wincareers.com/index.asp> for job openings and resume building for your occupation. (Username: wincareers and password fifi)

How much money can I earn with my degree?

Visit <http://www.bls.gov/OCO/> for the latest information and statistics on potential earnings in your chosen occupation.

Are there any local job opportunities in my field?

Yes. Your best guide and connection to local job opportunities is through your Program Advisor/Director. They are connected to local employers in your field. Click here for a list of Program Directors and their contact information.

Can I earn a Bachelor's degree in this field?

Visit www.facts.org and click on "College Students" for transfer options to baccalaureate degrees within Florida.

Will all of my credits from my degree transfer? Depending on the degree and the institution that you are transferring to. You may sit with an academic advisor for guidance on transferring or visit www.facts.org for more information on transferring credits to other Florida schools.

Are there internship opportunities available? Yes. You can earn credit while completing a semester long internship related to your current degree. Speak with your program director and complete the required Cooperative Education form.