Join Friends of the FKCC Library

Friends of the FKCC Library is just that — a group of people who are friends of the library and wish to support it in all its services to the community, from college students to community members.

How do you join the Friends?

By signing up here and letting us know you're interested. You can help us with library services, special programs, fundraisers and more.

For more information about the FKCC Library, check us out any time on the Web at <http://library.fkcc.edu> — you can keep up with events at the Library at w our News & Events blog at www.fkccclibrary.blogspot.com

WE WELCOME DONATIONS
If you're looking to slim down your collection of books or DVDs, or just make room for more, the FKCC Library welcomes donations of both. We'll add it to the collection or put it in our sale offerings — either way it benefits the Library!

WE WELCOME VOLUNTEERS
If you like spending time in the library and want to help out, we welcome volunteers — you can help with daily operations, special projects or lots of other tasks. We'll find something to suit your talents or help you learn some new skills. Just ask!
