

FKCC Voted Best Community College for Third Year

FKCC students enjoy outdoor study time on FKCC's beautiful, waterfront Key West Campus.

KEY WEST, FL, October 31, 2011—Florida Keys Community College was voted “Best Community College” by the readers of Florida Monthly magazine in the publication’s annual “Best of Florida” awards. This is the second consecutive year and third year in total that FKCC took the top spot among the “Great 28” institutions in the Florida College System.

“We are thrilled and honored to be voted the ‘Best’ once again,” said Dr. Larry Tyree, FKCC President. “I think our unique programs, high-quality faculty, and island charm must really strike a chord with the readers of Florida Monthly. Who wouldn’t want to go to college in paradise?”

FKCC, the southernmost college in the continental U.S., offers two-year undergraduate degrees, certificates, and courses for those planning to transfer to a university, enter or advance in the workforce, or seek personal enrichment.

The Tennessee Williams Theatre, which resides on the college’s Key West Campus, also received an award for being the “Best Performing Arts Center.”

###