CJBAT
Frequently Asked Questions

What does CJBAT stand for? Criminal Justice Basics Abilities Test

How much does the CJBAT cost? $45 per exam

What score do I need to pass the test? 79% or above for the Law Enforcement exam or 72% or above for the Corrections Officer exam.

How long does it take to receive my score? You will receive your score immediately after you finish your test.

How many times can the exam be taken? Candidates will be restricted to taking three (3) CJBAT tests within a one year period.

How long does the test take? You are allocated 2 ½ hours to complete the exam.

Who has to take the test? Anyone who is trying to be considered for either the law enforcement officer (LEO) or corrections officer training (COT) academies.

What does sponsored/non-sponsored mean? Sponsored means that an agency (such as the KWPD or MCSO) has hired the person and will be paying the individual to attend the law enforcement officer (LEO) or corrections officer training (COT) academies.

Can I use reference materials? No. Reference materials are not allowed; all materials needed for the exam will be provided for you by the testing center (scrap paper and pencils).

Are there study materials available? Yes. Please visit www.publicsafetyrecruitment.com.

What should I bring with me to the test? Bring photo identification (driver’s license or government issued ID) and a method of payment. No personal belongings are allowed into the testing room.

Where do I go to take the exam? The test site is located at 5901 College Road, Key West, FL 33040. Park in the front parking lot and proceed to Building A (Administration Building) which is the blue building with the flagpole. Walk through sliding glass doors and report to the Continuing Education counter located on your right hand side.

Who do I contact to register for the test? Contact the Florida Keys Community College Continuing Education Department at 305-809-3185.