SATELLITE LOCATIONS

In addition to the Key West Campus, FKCC also has two centers: the Middle Keys Center in Marathon and the Upper Keys Center in Tavernier. The centers offer students the opportunity to complete coursework toward an Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree without traveling to the main campus. Student services such as admission, enrollment, and academic advising are also available. Students can also take non-credit continuing education classes for workforce training or personal enrichment.