Florida Keys Community College is offering a special class for entrepreneurs at its main campus in Key West: “Introduction to Business” (GEB 1011). The 8-week course begins October 23rd and ends on December 18th.

FKCC Director of Business Administration, Dr. Bill will lead the 3-credit class, which will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12 noon to 2:50pm. Students will learn practical solutions for running a business with an emphasize on the challenges faced by small enterprises in meeting and competing with large corporations.

"This class is suited for everyone, regardless of business management experience," says Dr. Smith. "I'll teach current business owners and aspiring entrepreneurs how to thrive in an increasingly competitive global economy."

The workshop is tax-deductible, and students must register in advance for the course. For information and questions, contact Dr. Smith by calling 305-809-3288. Seated is limited to 25, so call now to enroll!
